

Contents

Introduction	1
Part I Buddhism in History	5
"Buddhism is both one and many"	7
"The Buddha is only a man who achieved Awakening"	11
"Buddhism is an Indian religion"	18
"Buddhism is the cult of nothingness"	23
"Buddhism is a philosophy, not a religion"	27
"All Buddhists are seeking to achieve Awakening"	34
"Buddhism teaches the impermanence of all things"	39
"The belief in karma leads to fatalism"	44
"Buddhism denies the existence of a self"	49
"Buddhism teaches reincarnation"	52
Part II Buddhism and Local Cultures	57
"Buddhism is an atheistic religion"	59
"Buddhism is above all a spirituality"	66

Contents

“The Dalai Lama is the spiritual leader of Buddhism”	71
“To be Buddhist is to be Zen”	76
Part III Buddhism and Society	83
“Buddhism is a tolerant religion”	85
“Buddhism teaches compassion”	89
“Buddhism is a peaceful religion”	93
“Buddhism affirms that we are all equal”	99
“Buddhism is compatible with science”	104
“Buddhism is a kind of therapy”	112
“Buddhism advocates a strict vegetarianism”	118
“Buddhism is a universalist teaching”	122
“Buddhism is a religion of monks”	129
Conclusion: Buddhism or Neo-Buddhism?	139
Glossary	143
A Short Bibliography	151
Index	153