Remember the Alamo

Story Summary

Henry McArdle is an artist who wishes to paint a portrait representing the Battle of the Alamo. He meets with Santa Anna, the former president of Mexico, to learn more about what happened at the battle. Mrs. Dickinson, whose husband was killed at the Alamo, also meets with them. She wants to tell the American side of the battle.

The story flashes back in time to the Battle of the Alamo. Santa Anna's troops raided the Alamo mission and killed many Texans, despite the brave defensive attempts of William Travis, James Bowie, and Davy Crockett. The story concludes with Mrs. Dickinson, Santa Anna, and Henry reflecting on the battle and whether it strengthened Texas's fight for freedom from Mexico.
