MORTIMER

A Note from Robert Munsch

A long, long, LONG time ago when I was in first grade, my class had 60 kids in it!

The teacher didn't read any books and neither did the kids. It was not fun.

Well, here is a book that is fun to read for both you and your grown-ups.

READERS RULE!

Before Reading

High-Frequency Words

Practice reading these high-frequency words in the story:

sleep they very were

Meet the Characters

Get to know the characters from the story by looking at the pictures and names below:

Mortimer

Mother

Father

Police Officers

Mortimer's Song

In the story, Mortimer sings the same song over and over again. Create a tune for this song and practice singing it before reading the story.

Clang, clang, rattle bang bang,
Gonna make my noise all day.
Clang, clang, rattle bang bang,
Gonna make my noise all day.

Rhyme Time

In Mortimer's song, two of the words rhyme: clang and bang. These words rhyme because they have the same ending (-ang). Create a list of new words that rhyme with bang (e.g., fang is a real word and lang is not, but both rhyme with bang).

Phonics

There is a M sound at the beginning of the word Mortimer.

Can you make a M sound?

Pay close attention to the shape of your mouth as you make the sound. It might be helpful to make this sound while you look in a mirror to see the shape your mouth makes.

Try these different activities to help practice the letter M sound.

1. Take a close look around you and try to find three objects that start with the same sound.
2. Think of three other words that also start with the same sound. As an extra challenge, can you think of any words that end with a M sound?

3. A simple word that has the M sound at the beginning is the word mess. As you read this word, pay attention to the two other letter sounds in the word.

4. When two words rhyme, they have the same sounds at the end of the word. Take a look at the pictures below and point to any of the words that rhyme with mess.

chess

monkey

5. While you read, look out for other M sounds at the beginning of a word throughout the story. You can see the sound easily because it will be written in a different color.

To Billy, Sheila, and Kathleen Cronin

Mortimer went upstairs to bed—

THUMP

THUMP

THUMP

THUMP

THUMP.

His mother said, “MORTIMER, BE QUIET!”

Mortimer said, “YES! YES!”

She went down the stairs—

THUMP

THUMP

THUMP

THUMP

THUMP.

Then Mortimer sang,

Clang, clang, rattle bing bang,

Gonna make my noise all day.

Clang, clang, rattle bing bang,

Gonna make my noise all day.

Mortimer's father came up the stairs—

THUMP

THUMP

THUMP

THUMP

THUMP.

He said, “MORTIMER, BE QUIET!”

Mortimer said, “YES! YES! YES!”

Mortimer's father went down the stairs—

THUMP

THUMP

THUMP

THUMP

THUMP.

Then Mortimer sang,

Clang, clang, rattle bing bang,

Gonna make my noise all day.

Clang, clang, rattle bing bang,

Gonna make my noise all day.
