Oh, you're awake.

You shouldn't get up yet.

Huh?
Wha?

Ow!

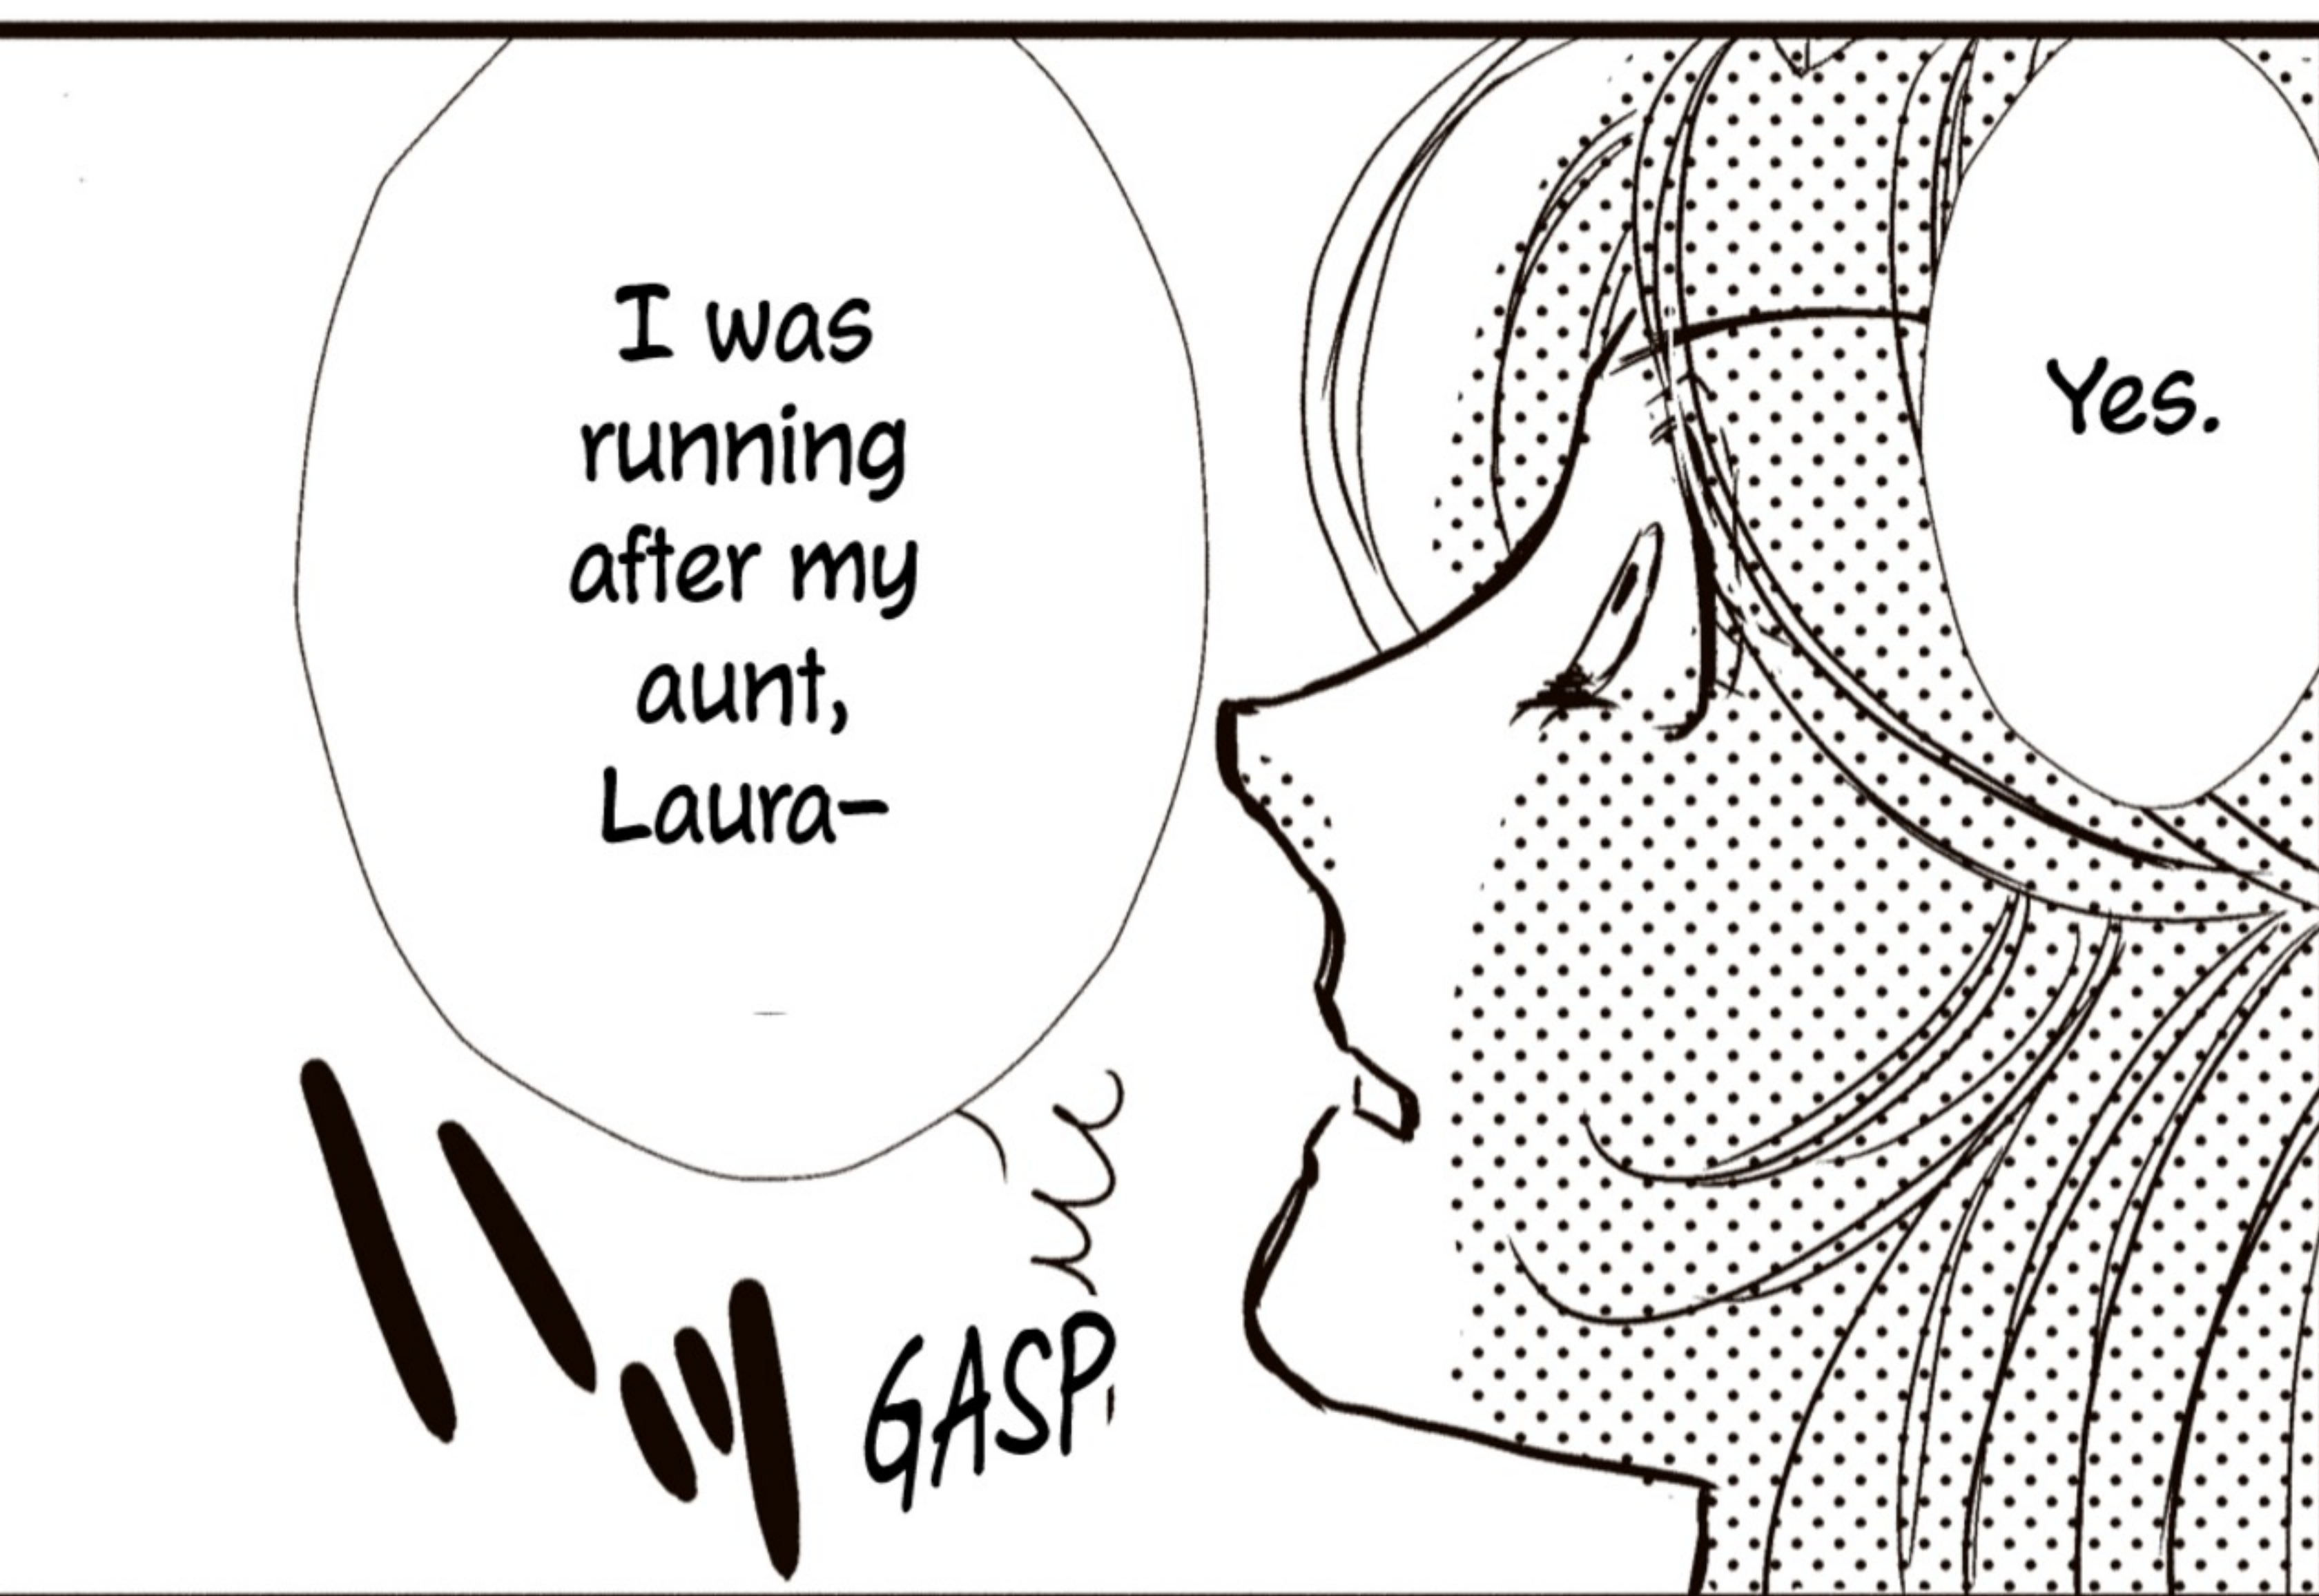

Nh.

Now that she's awake, she should be fine. Take it easy

Thank you, Doctor.

Where am I?

I was running after my aunt, Laura-

Yes.

GASP

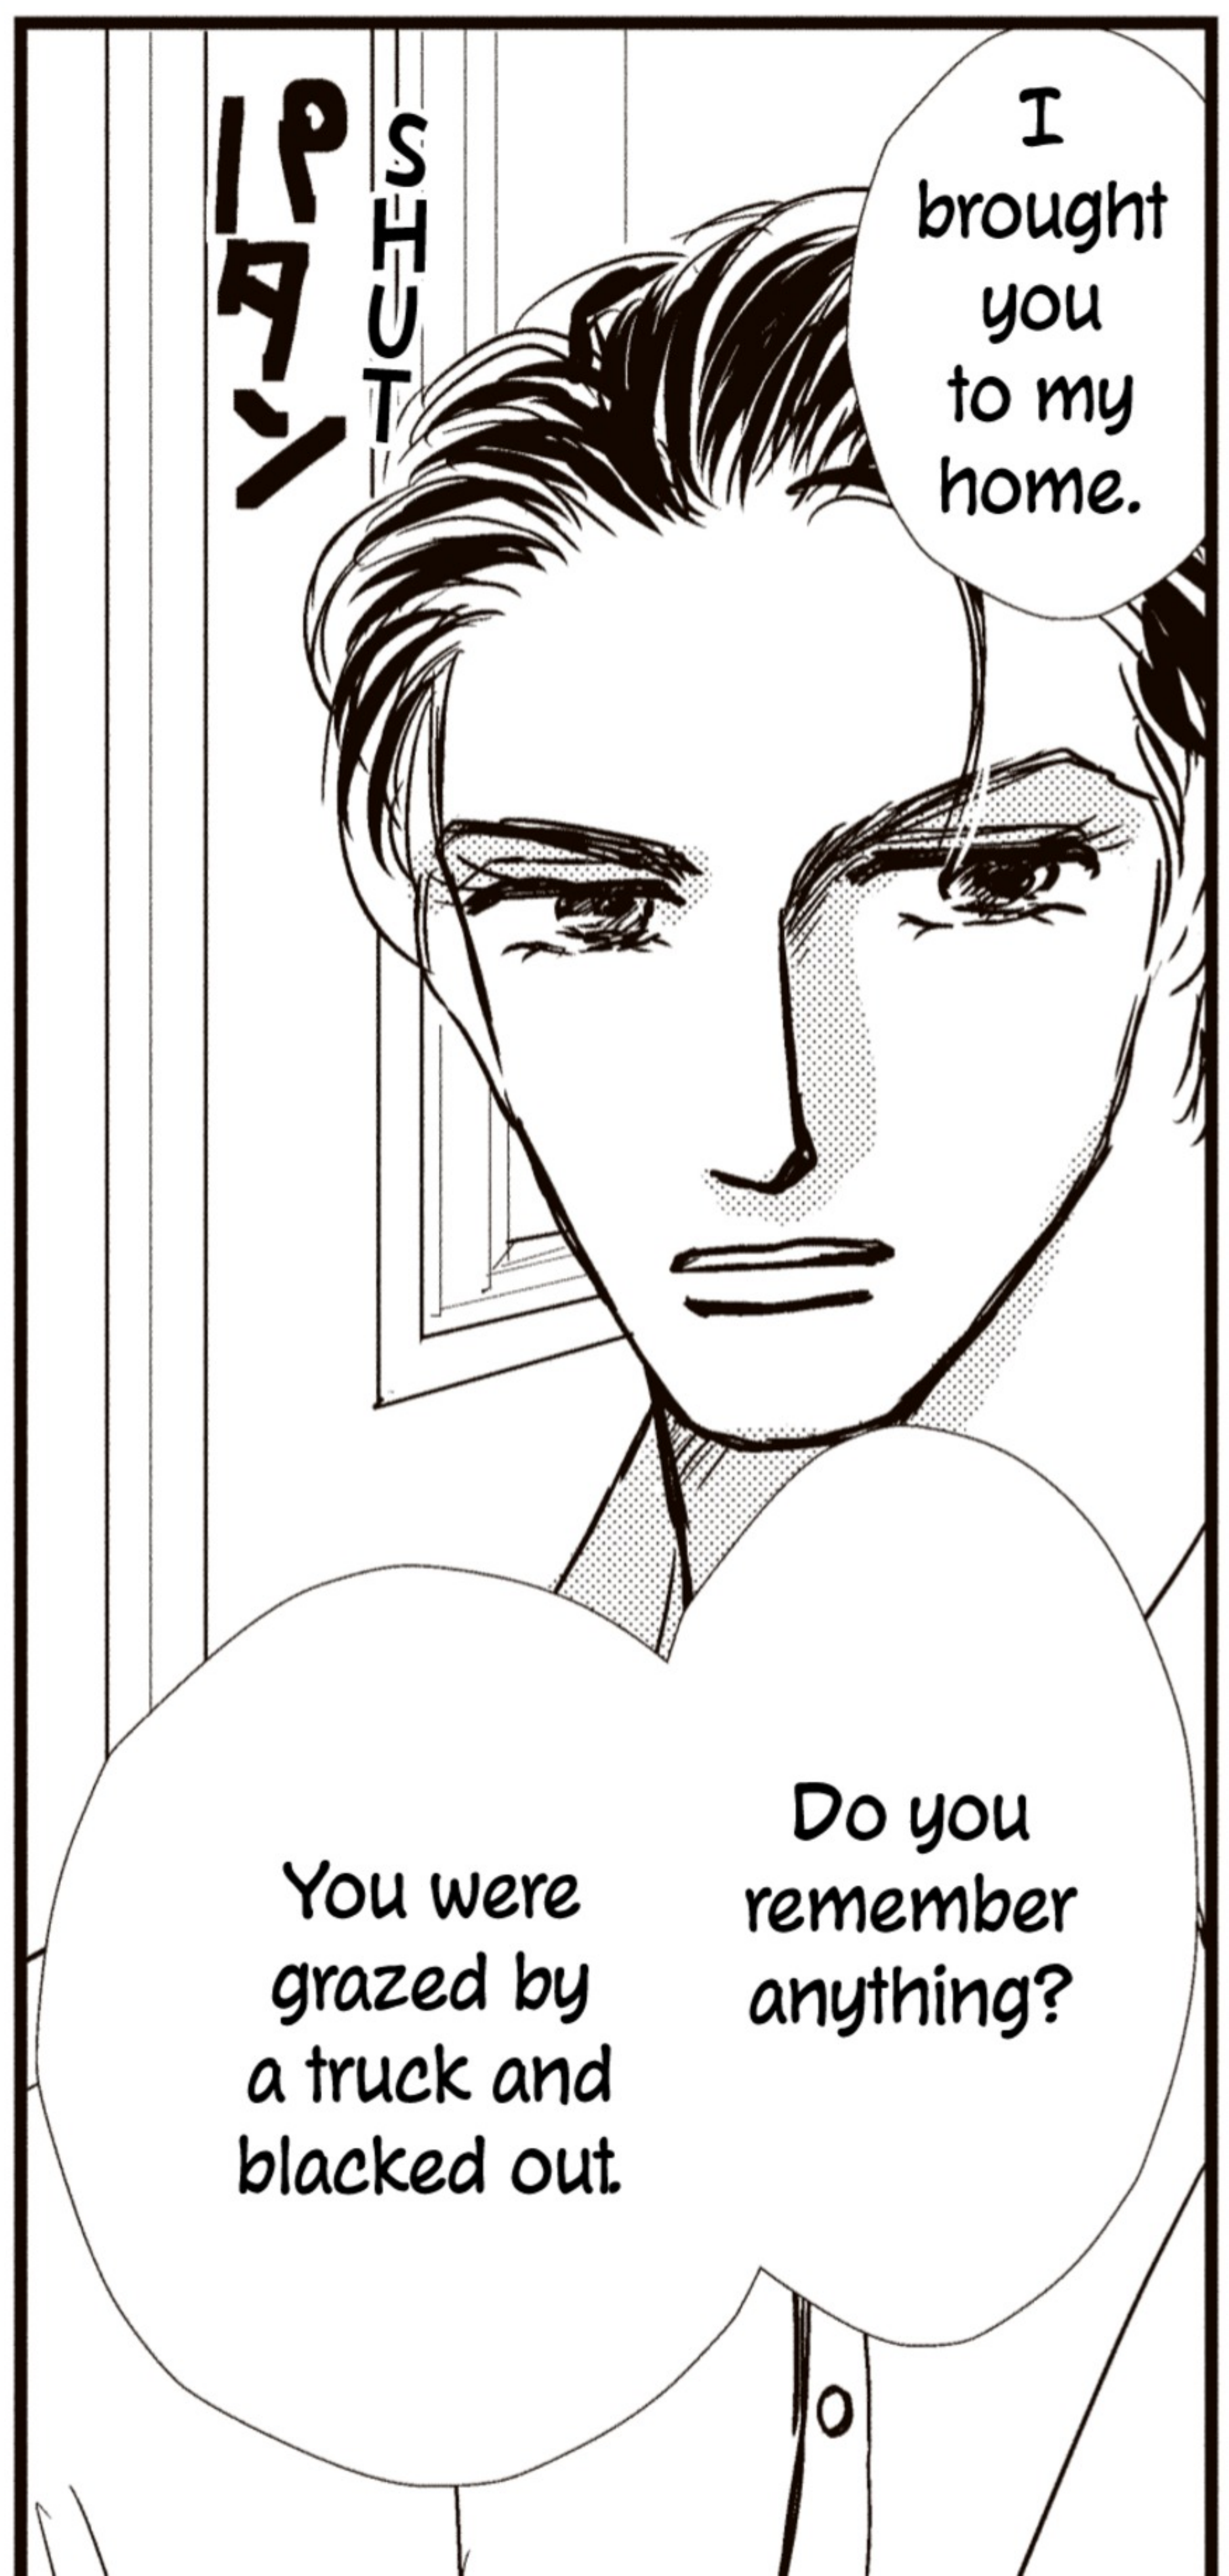

IP TAIN

I brought you to my home.

I left Melanie asleep back at my apartment!

Melanie! Where's Melanie?

You were grazed by a truck and blacked out.

Do you remember anything?

Auh!

She'll be hungry and need a change-

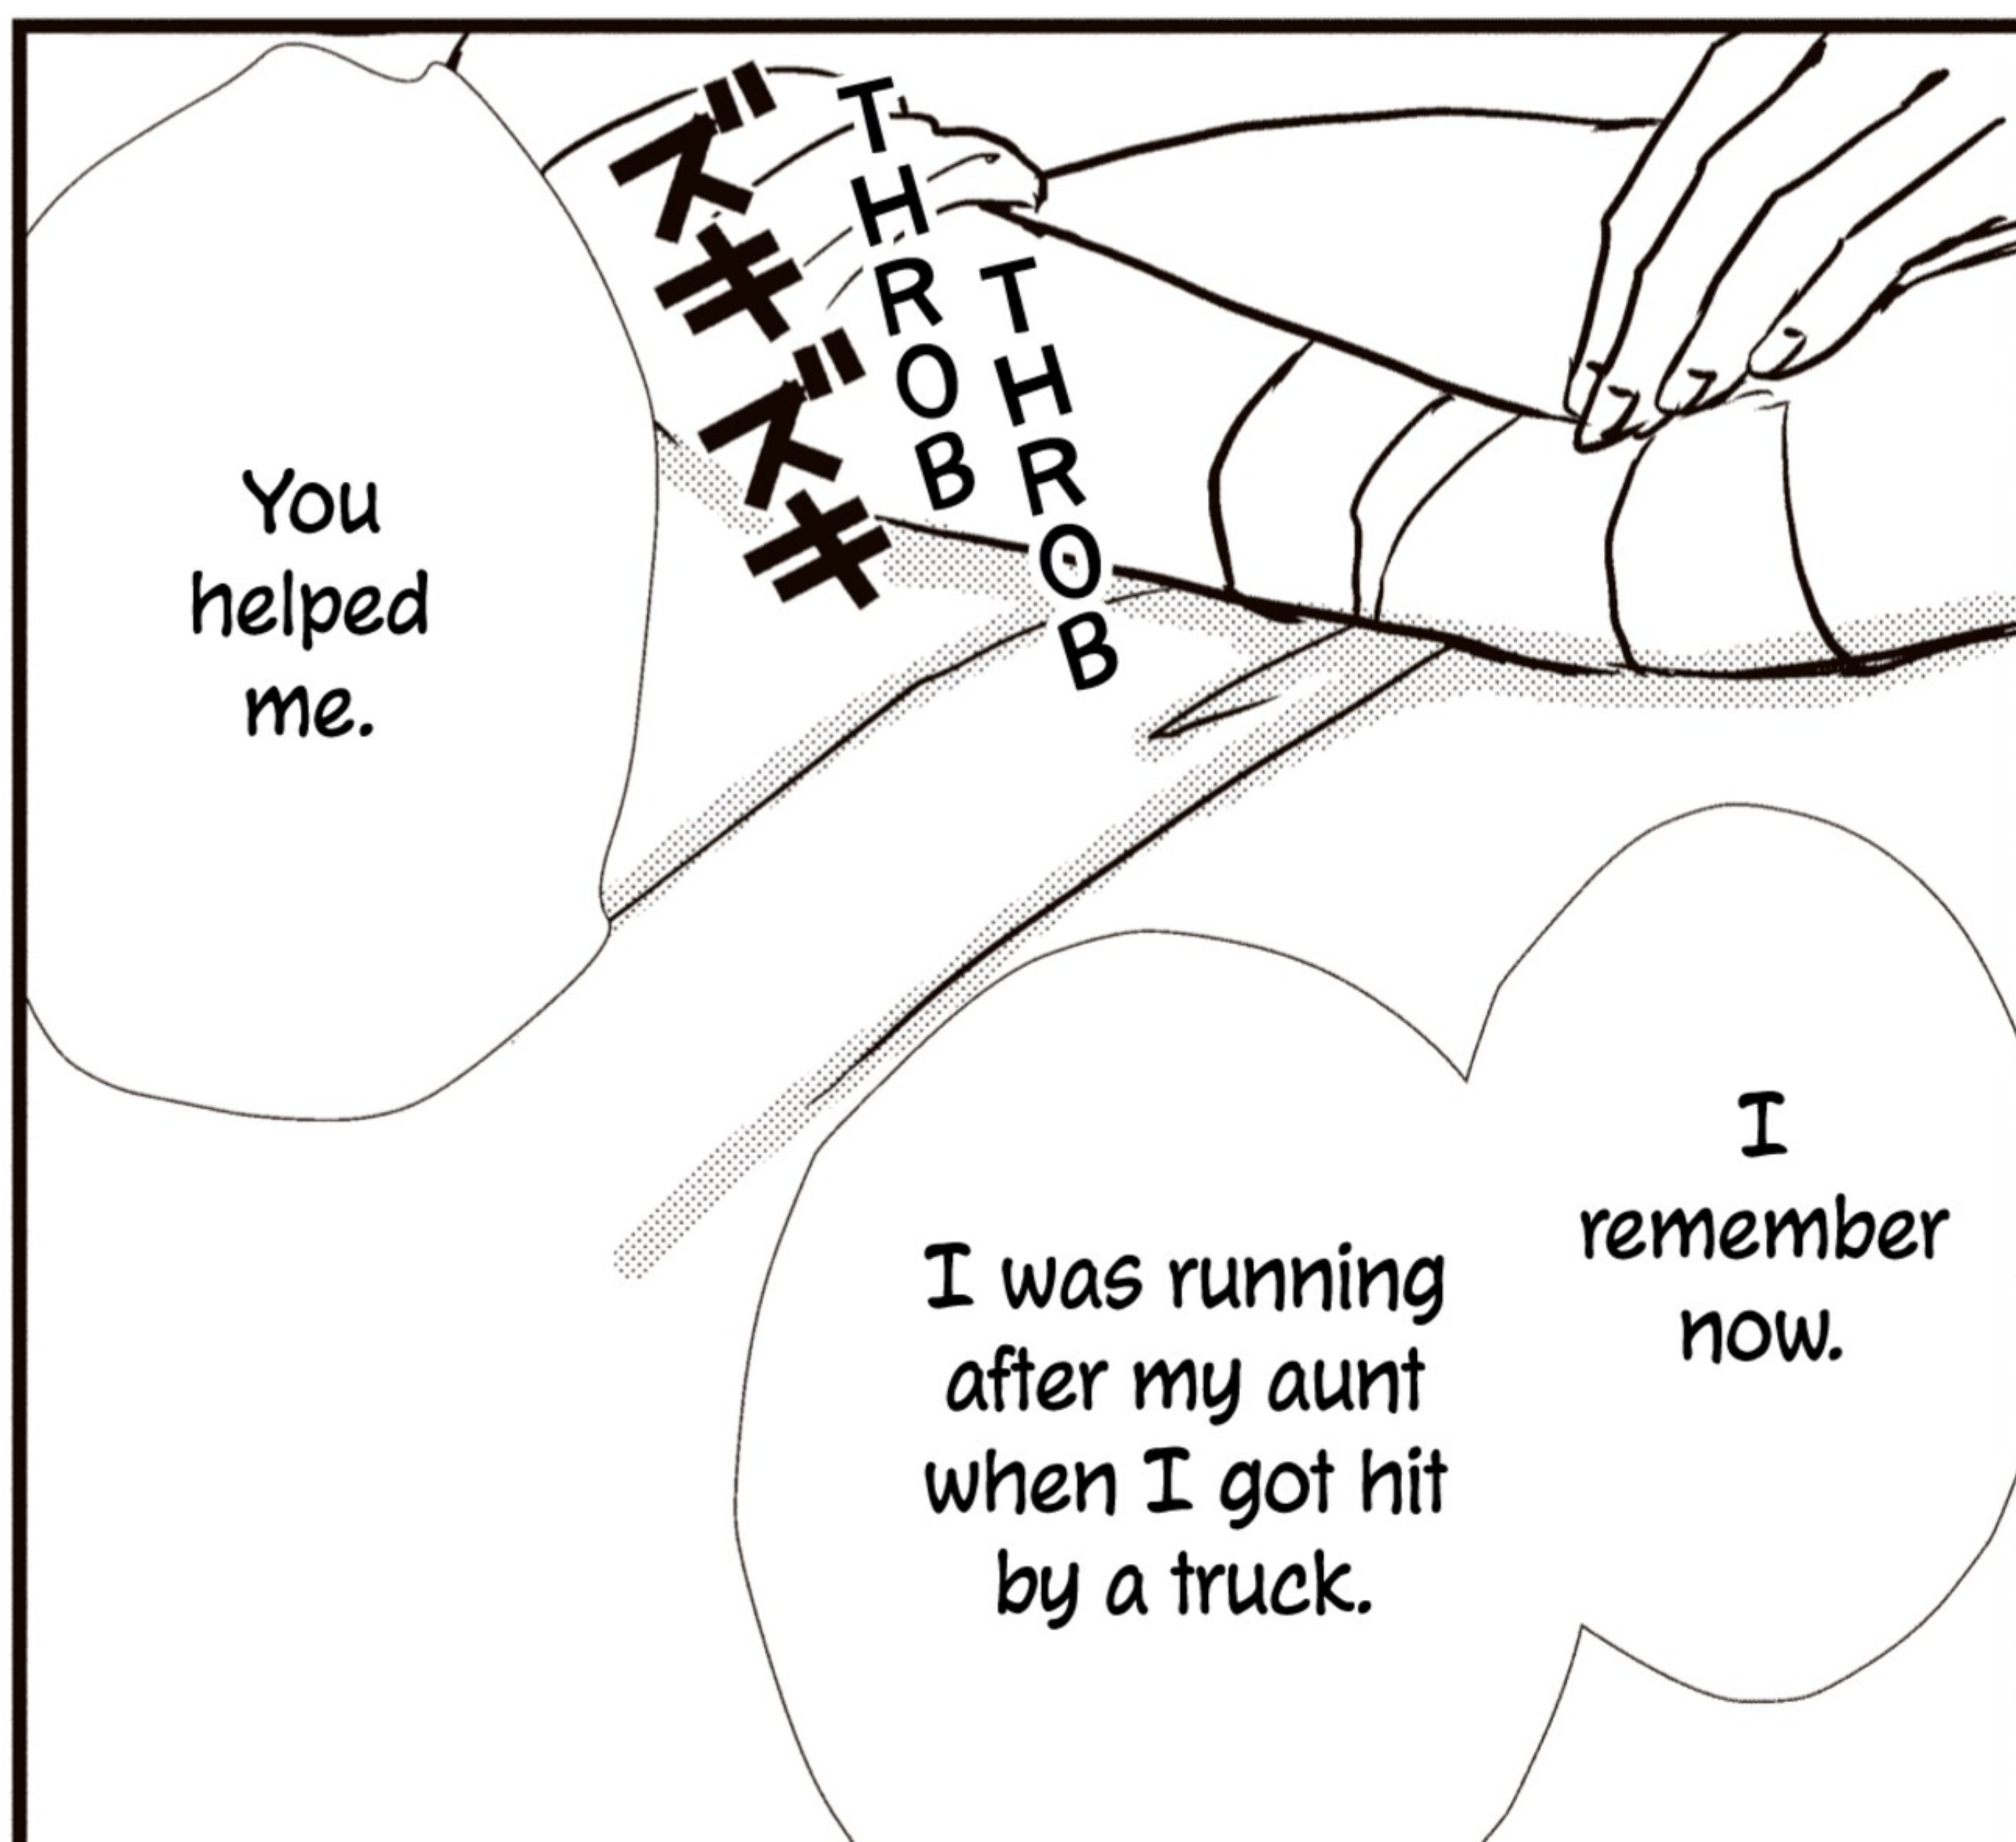

She's only eight months old. I have to get back to her.

My housekeepers are looking after her in another room right now.

Don't worry, I brought your baby here along with you.

With that arm, you're in no shape to be taking care of a baby for at least a week.

You helped me.

I was running after my aunt when I got hit by a truck.

I remember now.

Thank you so much.
