To Kékéli, Christophe!

To Estelle and Marion...

Ayélévi and her brother Alphonse attended the school in their village.
Every evening when they were not in class, the two kids loved strolling around the countryside.

They enjoyed picking the prettiest flowers they came across. They adored them. Besides, it became a game for them where they both looked forward to winning, by finding the prettiest flower.

Ayélévi always won the game. She often won against Alphonse as she always presented the prettier rose. Alphonse never knew where to find a rose.
